

customers are required to make a payment getting tickets, a customer can have many forms of payment but every payment can only have one customer the payment is what allows your tickets to be purchased, you can purchase many tickets but it will only be charged to the card on file(one payment) the ticket purchase is what holds your place in movies, movies can get many tickets and vice versa